ZU000

ZU001 Queen Victoria’s Jubilee oak (quercus robur) at Tookes Green
ZU002 The Jubilee oak with Tookes fountain
ZU003 Magnificent oak in open space between Cuckoo Hill and Catlins Lane
ZU004 Scots pines near East End House, Moss Lane
ZU005 Young giant sequoia (sequoiadendron giganteum) in Memorial Park
ZU006 Scots pines in Memorial Park
ZU007 Weeping willows (salix chrysocoma) in Memorial Park
ZU008 Horse chestnuts in Pinner High Street
ZU009 Ancient hedgerow opposite Tookes Green in Church Lane
ZU010 Young winter flowering cherry (prunus autumnalis) in Paines Lane Cemetery
ZU011 Suffering street trees by Parish Church
ZU012 Scots pine (pinus sylvestris) planted 1990 in Paines Lane Cemetery
ZU013 Indian horse chestnuts (aesculus indica) in Church Lane by Ingle Close
ZU014 Apricots and peaches on South wall of Fives Court, Moss Lane
ZU015 Cherry tree beside Pinner Church lychgate
ZU016 A young yew in Pinner Churchyard
ZU017 Shrubbery of 10-year-old hornbeams (carpinus betulus fastigiata) planted in 1955 by the Peace Garden in West End Lane
ZU018 Naturally seeded trees by River Pinn behind Red Lion Parade
ZU019 A young yew, approx 40 years old in St. John’s Churchyard
ZU020 Small oak forest near playground in Little Common, Elm Park Road
ZU021 Children’s playground by the oak forest on Little Common
ZU022 Pink horse chestnuts (aesculus carnea) on Little Common
ZU023 Horse chestnuts (aesculus hippocastanum) by Waxwell Close
ZU024 An ancient hawthorn and yew hedge at Birtsmorton, Waxwell Lane
ZU025 A line of topped cupressus leylandii in Waxwell Lane car park
ZU026 An ancient hedgerow, with Bee Cottage beyond, in Waxwell Lane
ZU027 Ancient oak tree (quercus robur) in Memorial Park
ZU028 Avenue of lime (tilia europaea) in High View, planted in 1930s
ZU029 Old hedge, Cuckoo Hill and High View, where lofty elms once stood
ZY030 Lack of respect for naturally seeded trees on banks of River Pinn
ZU031 Sessile (or durmast) oak near crest of hill in Paines Lane Cemetery

ZU032 A very old hawthorn (crataegus monogyna) in Paines lane Cemetery
ZU033 Ancient Irish yew (taxus baccata adpoessa variegate) on Cuckoo Hill
ZU034 Irish yew and other trees near Catlins Lane on Cuckoo Hill
ZU035 An acer planted in Pinner High Street in 1960s to replace the "town tree" which had stood there for centuries
ZU036 An oak (quercus cerris) called Turkey oak near a stile in George V Avenue
ZU037 Sessile oak (quercus petraea) by Uxbridge Road/St. Thomas Drive
ZU038 A young hawthorn (crataegus monogyna) by The Fives Court, Moss Lane
ZU039 Turkey oak (quercus cerris) by Uxbridge Road/St. Thomas Drive
ZU040 Sweet chestnut (castanea sativa) in Church Lane, opposite Black Gates footpath
ZU041 One of three pines planted in late 1980s by Moss Lane S bend
ZU042 Scots pines in Memorial Park
ZU043 Indian horse chestnuts (aesculus indica) near Pinner House, Church Lane
ZU044 Mature oaks on edge of Little Common playground
ZU045 19th century Scots pines (pinus sylvestris) in Waxwell Lane
ZU046 A mature hawthorn in Waxwell Lane
ZU047 Plane tree (platanus hispanica) at entrance to Waxwell Lane car park
ZU048 Damaged tulip tree (liriodendron tulipifera) at Tookes Green sprouting again
ZU049 A tree planted by Harrow Council in 2000 by entrance to Love Lane car park
ZU050 Horse chestnut in Love Lane donated in 1984 by Pinner Association
ZU051 Ancient yew (taxus baccata) and Scots pine (pinus sylvestris) in churchyard
ZU052 An ash tree (fraxinus excelsior) in St. John's Churchyard
ZU053 A yew tree (taxus baccata) planted in Churchyard in1974 at age 12 years
ZU054 Ancient holly tree (ilex aquifolium, Golden King) in Church Lane
ZU055 George V Avenue in Springtime
ZU056 General view of trees in grounds of Waxwell Farmhouse, Waxwell Lane
ZU057 Cypress hedge with flowering cherry at Waxwell Farmhouse
ZU058 Red chestnut about 150 years old at Waxwell farmhouse
ZU059 Very old oak tree on Pinner Hill golf course in which the Home Guard constructed a wartime observation platform in 1940
ZU060 Same oak tree (one of the oldest in Middlesex) showing its full spread
ZU061 Trunk of same tree which still bears evidence of ladder attached in wartime